

Risk Assessments - Performance Management

Duration: 1 Day

Risk assessments are now a part of every business to different degrees. This session will take you through what a risk assessment is and how to implement them within your organisation. You will find out the legal requirements and know which records need to be kept. Time will also be included to carry out an assessment during the session.

Pre requisites

There are no prerequisites for this course